LOCATION

No. 17 Duke Street is located on the south side of Duke Street midway between the junction with both Grafton Street and Dawson Street.

No. 17 is just 60m. from Grafton Street in what is undoubtedly Dublin's most sought after retail, commercial and leisure district, surrounded by a wide array of retail premises, restaurants and bars.

Adjoining occupiers include Marks & Spencer, Mulberry, Nespresso and Oscar Grimes Jewellers with restaurants and bars closeby including The Ivy, The Bailey, The Duke, The Lemon & Duke, Carluccio's and many other cafes and eating venues.

The area is well served by public transport with Luas green line nearby on Dawson Street, Dart at Pearse Street and multiple cross city bus routes serving the area.

DESCRIPTION

No. 17 Duke Street is an imposing period building which is in commercial use with an Art Gallery use on Hall and First floors, ancillary storage at 2nd floor, a partially refurbished but currently unused 3rd floor and former Wine Bar use at basement level which has separate street access and a smoking area in a small rear yard off the hall return level.

The building extends to a total net internal floor area of approx. 248.4 sq.m. (2,675 sq.ft.) and a gross internal floor area of approx. 330 sq.m. (3,550 sq.ft.).

This 4 storey over basement building dates from approximately 1725 and was partially refurbished approximately 15 years ago. The property features part brick and part painted ruled and lined rendered front façade with attractive partially glazed front door leading to a generous entrance hallway and two interconnecting hall floor rooms with high ceilings and many retained period features including attractive ceiling cornices and stripped and varnished floor boards. The 1st & 2nd floors both provide 2 attractive interconnecting rooms while the 3rd floor is completely open plan with exposed brickwork and roof trusses.

The former Wine Bar (The Red Bank) in the basement has exposed cut stone walls, stone flooring and original fireplaces.
